

Personnel and pregnancy in KPM

- You need to inform your immediate superior as soon as you know you are pregnant or suspect pregnancy, or if you are planning pregnancy (men and women).
- One is recommended not to enter KPM without first undergoing an extensive risk assessment due to exposure to allergens, hazardous drugs and chemicals and potential exposure to opportunist and pathogens.
- BHT (the Occupational Health Service) will give counsel for pregnancy at work.
Staff members of the Occupational Health Service - University of Oslo \(uio.no\)
ebht-post@admin.uio.no
- STAMI (National Institute of Occupational Health) will give counsel for pregnancy at work.
Front Page - STAMI \(English\)
+47 23 19 51 00
graviditet@stami.no
- If entry to KPM cannot be avoided, extra personal protective equipment (PPE), like a fresh air mask, chemical resistant apron and chemical resistant gloves are recommended.